Specific Rules Box Cricket - 4th Feb 2017, Footbrawl, Oshiwara

- Each match will be played 7 players a side and will have 1 reserve player. A match consists of 6 overs per side. Each of the 6 overs has to be bowled by a different bowler. Balls have to be bowled under arm from below the waist (side arm not allowed) without completely lifting the leg and from within the box at the bowlers end. If the bowler's foot touches any line of the box, the same will be declared a no ball. The umpires decision is final with regards to the bowling action of a bowler. Once a bowler bowls the first ball, he cannot be changed and has to complete the over. A team will get a maximum of 15 minutes to bowl the six overs in an innings. Other rules on the bowling will be intimated at the tournament by the organizers & umpires
- There shall be two power play overs one each for the bowling team & batting team during the 6 over innings. In the batting power play over the runs scored by the batting team will be doubled at the end of the over and added to the score. In the bowling power play over, the runs scored by the batting team will be halved at the end of the over and added to the score. Any decimals will be converted to the nearest full number. The batting power play should be taken in the first three overs of the innings (by default the third over). The bowling team can change the bowler when the batting team decides to take the power play over. The bowling power play should be taken in the last three overs (by default the 6th over)
- A wide or a no ball fetches 1 run. Full toss above the waist will be treated as a no ball assuming the batsmen has not moved from his position down the track when the ball has been bowled. The bowler has to pitch the ball (if at all) beyond the pitch line for the ball to be a legitimate delivery else it will be termed as a no ball. A wide / no ball has to be re bowled even if a wicket falls due to a stumping or run out.
- If the ball hits the roof net, the ball is considered in play. If a catch is taken after the ball hits the roof net, the same is considered not out. If the ball pitches more than once before it reaches the batsman, the same will be declared as a dead ball by the umpires.
- A maximum of 3 fielders are allowed to be placed behind the bowler for all the six overs. If the same is not the case, it will be termed as a no ball.
- A tape will be put across the perimeter of the box. If the ball is hit directly above this tape the batsman will be declared out except on a no ball. In that case, no additional runs will accrue (except that of the no ball) & only the ball will be re bowled. In case the ball touches any part of the fielder's body and then directly goes over the tape, the batting team gets the applicable runs earmarked.

- In all group / league matches each team in a group will play a minimum of 2 league matches as per the schedule. A win in the league matches fetches 2 points, a tie / abandoned match fetches 1 point. No points are awarded for a loss. The top 2 teams of the group will progress to the knock out rounds. There will be no carry forward of points / run rates from the group stage. The winners of the group will be ranked using the following criteria
  - i. the team having the maximum points tops the group
  - ii. if the points are equal, then the team having more wins in the group
  - iii. if still equal, then the team winning the head to head in the group
  - iv. if still equal, then the team having the higher net run rate
  - v. if still equal, then by a toss of the coin
- In all knockout matches (including the finals), in case of a tie there will be a super over played between the teams. The super over will be a normal one i.e. no power play rules will be applicable. In case a batting team loses two wickets in the super over, the super over ends. In case the scores are tied at the end of the super over, the winner will be decided by the toss of a coin.
- The rules above are subject to change and any changes will be intimated by the organisers at the start of the tournament which has to be accepted by all the teams.
  Any other rules as applicable will be intimated on the tournament dates by the umpires / organizers.
